Title subject:	Notification of completion of acquiring overseas standards certification (UL/CSA) for the additional housing resin material products		Revision date:

It is informed that the certification of the overseas standards (UL/CSA) for the XM connector Housing made of additional resin material (A30SFN31 made by LANXESS) has been completed as follows.

1. Target product and Part Number

Series	Part name	Part number	UL certification	CSA certification
XM	Housing	XMP-V-* (SU) XMR-V(*) (SU)	Registration complete	Registration complete

Note) Number of circuits in two-digit figures is indicated in **.

Regarding this matter, the certification of the overseas standards has been completed. Therefore, as our next step, we will gradually promote the unification to the original part number.

Your thought understanding and consideration would be very much appreciated.
